

Prof. Dr. Claude ROCHET

Claude.rochet@univ-cezanne.fr

+33 6 76 04 67 90

<http://www.claude-rochet.com>

Résumé

University professor: public management, management of technology and innovation, Phd, Ancien élève de l'École Nationale d'Administration (Promotion Fernand Braudel)
Master in history, graduated as professor

Auditor of IHESI (Institute of Advanced Studies in Internal Security)

My career occurs both in the private and public sectors and has a common focus on the transformation of institutions and organizations in correlation with the technological evolution.

Public sector

- Adviser for research to the CEO of IGPDE (Paris)
- Head of project: conceiving and implementing the monitoring system of the French research policy (2005-2007)
- Adviser to the Delegate for the Reform of the State, Prime Minister, Paris. Publication of the Rochet report on the monitoring of public policies through autonomous agencies.

Private sector

- Scientific advisor with
 - UNIROSS (France, since 2008)
 - Inno.com (Belgium, since 2005)
 - CIGREF (French CIO NGO) : using IT for leveraging innovation and creating value (present, since 2000)
- Associate consultant in innovation policy and organizational transformational transformation, France & Canada: Automotive industry, Steelmaking, Non profit org. (1991-1999)
- Director, head of staff, Sollac Usinor. (1989-1990)

Academic

- Professor in Public Management, Institut de Management Public, Université d'Aix Marseille III, Aix-en-Provence, France (present, since 2003), Ecole Nationale d'Administration, Paris
- Professor in the Management of Technology, Université Paris Nord, 1999 - 2002

- English and Spanish as working languages
- Mountaineering, cross country skiing, mountain bike...
- Married, 3 children, 59.

Core competencies

- Strategic monitoring and organizational transformation
- Management of technology
- Business Intelligence

Key points

- Leadership and project leader
- Comparative intelligence of public and private management system